

"IELOL has enhanced my career by allowing access to amazing faculty and colleagues from around the country."

Dr. Tony Farrell

Executive Dean, College of Education - Ashford University

IELOL: AMAZING CONTENT, AMAZING FACULTY, AMAZING EXPERIENCE!

How did you hear IELOL?

Dr. Andrew Shean (current IELOL faculty member) told me that IELOL was one of the top professional development opportunities for leaders in online education and encouraged me to apply. I have worked with Dr. Shean for a number of years and I have tremendous respect for him as a thought leader within online education

What was your interest in IELOL?

As the leader of the College of Education, I was looking for online education professional development opportunities. IELOL has a tremendous reputation for attracting top online leaders as faculty members. The ability to learn from them and network with other leaders made attending IELOL a priority.

How did the program help you in your career?

Numerous ways; I was able to learn about the many issues facing online leaders at different types of institutions. However, the most important benefit has been access and networking with leaders, faculty, and alumni from the institute.

About Tony

I am a career educator with experience in many areas of PK12 and higher education. At the College of Education, we've embarked faculty development, realizing that online teaching has a specific pedagogy that differs from face-to-face and hybrid instruction. Developing and retaining the best online instructors is a core value for us.

TOP BENEFITS OF IELOL

- Learning about the trends and innovations in online content delivery.
- Having an opportunity to problem solve and discuss issues at the institution, college, or program level.
- Focusing on a project that will be of value to your home institution.
- Learning from the great faculty that IELOL has assembled.
- Networking, networking, and networking!

The collaboration, learning, and networking is second to none!
